Meetings

The group meets the second Tuesday of the month every other month beginning in January. Meetings typically begin around 6:00 p.m. The group does hold some meetings on weekends when more time is needed.

Education

Each meeting presents opportunities to become more knowledgeable about woodland management. Meeting topics feature current environmental topics that are useful for both the beginning woodland manager and seasoned professional. When informative speakers are not brought to an indoor location, the group is out in the field getting hands on experience on natural resource topics.
